1950s embroidered bag at I Want Vintage

Vintage shopping is certainly an art, and requires hours of trawling markets, stores and charity shops to find the real gems. Luckily, new site www.iwantvintage.co.uk takes the leg work out of shopping for retro pieces, having created an online virtual town of vintage boutiques. Showcasing a vast selection of pieces from some of the best vinatge suppliers across the UK, you can get everything from furniture to kitchenwares and art.

A fashion store is opening imminently, but until then, there are some amazing accessories to browse. This exquisite 1950s bag is just one example of the treasures to be found.
